

History of Barangay Estipona

Estipona assumes the premiership among the barrios in the municipality of Pura, or possibly among the barrios in the province of Tarlac.

This barangay got its name from an interesting incident. At that time, the founders of this barangay often held meetings to discuss waste and means to improve their community. While holding one of these meetings, a squad of Spanish soldiers patrolling the place arrived, theirby, the commander ejaculated, " Soon Este?". The leader who could interpret thought of the officer wanted to know the meaning of the meeting. The, he nervously answered " Este senior? Este Estipon". Then the officer repeated the answer " Estipon Ah?". The Spaniards then thought that the name of the place was "Estipona". Later, the name of Estipona was modified to ESTIPONA. According to statistical records, " Estipona was founded in 1888, the same year the Pura, her mother municipality was founded.

Original families during that time were Facundo Gamit, Remegio Benitez, Mauricio Obiena, Sotero Aganon and Fausto Melegrito.
