

History of Barangay

Barangay MAASIN is one of the 16 barangays in the Municipality of Pura, Tarlac. Brgy. MAASIN was named during the Spanish time in honor of San Miguel. According to the History, San Miguel was a He has a dog as his companion in roaming begging alms. He was being harassed by some Spaniards because they accused him of having a relative with a high position in the government, a "Gobernadorcillo". Hence, the slight cut in his left thigh as we see in his effigy. The feast of San Miguel is on the 16th of the lean month of August.

Barangay MAASIN was ruled by the following persons: a) First Barrio Captain-the late CESARIO MILLO(1963-1972), b) the late JUAN CALURA (1972-1982), c) Barangay Chairman JUAN CALURA (1989-1992), d) Barangay Captain PIO CALURA (1994-1997), e) Brgy. Captain PIO CALURA(1997-2007), and f) Brgy Captain Nelson lactaoen (2007-2013 and g)at present Brgy.Captain HUDSON C. CALURA.

The livelihood of the residents comes mostly from farming and fishing, only few are professionals, while others are laborers and OFW's. The main products of the inhabitants are rice, corn, mangoes and vegetables.

The most important is that although Barangay MAASIN is just a small barangay, they are consistent recipients of awards through Clean and Green programs, sports, and talent awards under the auspices of the incumbent Barangay Captain Hudson c. Calura.
